Nexus 2014 is a global gathering on climate, environmental health, & justice

October 6-8 at UC Irvine – October 9-10 in San Francisco

This high-level convening includes leaders of grassroots and public interest organizations focused on strengthening collaboration and strategies in global environmental health and justice advocacy. The convening focuses on the nexus of environmental health, justice, and climate change.

Africa

Mercia Andrews, South Africa
Trust for Community Outreach and Education (TCOE)
mercia@tcoe.org.za

TCOE is committed to building a national formation of poor rural peoples’ organizations with strong, democratic & accountable leadership that’s able to organize, mobilize & coordinate the struggles of the rural & coastal poor.

Jamidu Katima, Tanzania
AGENDA
jamidu_katima@yahoo.co.uk

Prof. Katima, is Chairman of AGENDA and a former IPEN Co-Chair. Since 1998 he has served as an UNFCCC Methodologies and CDM expert and co-authored an Intergovernmental Panel on Climate Change report. He is a Mercury Treaty Emissions Expert Group Member.

Elizabeth Mpofu, Zimbabwe
La Via Campesina/ZIMSOFF
eliz.mpofu@gmail.com

Elizabeth is the General Coordinator of La Via Campesina’s ICC. She is a founding member of Zimbabwe Smallholder Organic Farmers Forum (ZIMSOFF) and Eastern Southern Smallholder Farmers’ Forum, organizations that promote sustainable farming.
Bridget Mugambe, Uganda
Alliance for Food Sovereignty
b_mugambe@yahoo.com
Bridget is a social scientist by profession with BA and MA in Social Sciences. She has 9+ years of experience in policy advocacy, community mobilization and sensitization on issues of seed, Intellectual Property Rights and farmers’ rights.

Fiona Armstrong, Australia
Climate & Health Alliance
covener@caha.org.au
Fiona is a health professional with postgraduate degrees in journalism, politics and public policy. She is founder and convener of Climate and Health Alliance, a coalition of healthcare stakeholders working to promote climate action, and advocating for climate and health policy.

Mao Da, China
REEI
elephantmao@gmail.com
Mao Da, Ph.D., is an activist and co-founder of the NGOs: Rock Environment & Energy Institute and Nature University in China. He is a post-doctoral researcher at Beijing Normal University studying the history of waste, urban environment and environmental health.

LiWen Chen, China
Nature University
liwenchen9230@gmail.com
Chen is the co-founder of Nature University, an environmental NGO that has intervened in many incinerator pollution cases and revealed the problems in Environmental Assessment Reports, environmental information disclosure and other waste management policies in China.

Asia and The Pacific

Renzo Guinto, Philippines
Health Care without Harm
renzo.guinto@gmail.com
Renzo is HCWH Asia’s Climate and Health Initiative Campaigner. He previously worked for WHO, the International Organization for Migration, and the International Federation of Medical Students’ Associations. He trained as a physician with experience in global health and environmental sustainability throughout the world.
Imogen Ingram, Cook Islands Island Sustainability Alliance CIS, Inc.
imogenpuaingram@gmail.com
Imogen is an indigenous leader and environmental activist. Over the past several decades her experience at the national, regional and global levels include working with indigenous and SIDS leaders on climate change, good governance, toxic chemicals, waste and marine protection.

Yuyun Ismawati, Indonesia
IPEN BaliFokus
yuyun@balifokus.asia
Yuyun is the BaliFokus Senior Advisor. She is a 2009 Goldman Prize recipient for her achievements promoting community-based sanitation, non-incineration waste management and non-toxic solutions. She works largely on mercury, small-scale gold mining, and its impacts to human health and the environment.

Mariann Lloyd-Smith, Australia
National Toxics Network
bimap@oztoxics.org
Mariann has a PhD in law, and is a Senior Advisor to IPEN and NTN- the leading toxics NGO in Australia & Pacific region. She co-authored the UNEP report on Climate Change & Toxics, and focuses on campaigns to avoid toxic-fracking

Sarojeni Rengam, Malaysia
Pesticide Action Network Asia & The Pacific (PANAP)
sarojeni.rengam@panap.net
Sarojeni coordinates a grassroots network that supports and advances the rights of farmers, farmworkers, women and small food producers. PANAP collaborates with CSOs to support communities’ efforts to adapt to climate change by promoting ecological agriculture and campaigning for pesticide elimination.

Isobel Braithwaite, UK
Global Climate & Health Alliance
Isobel.Braithwaite@gmail.com
While working on her medical degree, Isobel works on outreach and communications for GCHA. Prior to becoming involved with GCHA, she worked on sustainable healthcare, and coordinated a student advocacy group called Healthy Planet UK.
Mariel Vilella, UK
Zero Waste Europe/GAIA
mariel@no-burn.org
Mariel is Associate Director and Climate Policy Campaigner with Zero Waste Europe/GAIA - Global Alliance for Incinerator Alternatives. She leads the Alliance’s work on zero waste project guidelines for major sources of climate finance, and international and European climate and energy policy with impacts on the waste sector.

Olga Speranskaya, Russia
IPEN & Eco-Accord
olga@ipen.org
Olga has a PhD in physics, and serves as an IPEN Co-chair and Director of the Eco-Accord (Russia) Toxic Chemicals Program. She received the 2009 Goldman and 2011 UNEP Earth Champion awards for her campaigns to support environmental justice in the post-Soviet region.

North America

William Copeland, USA
East Michigan Environmental Action Council
williamwholenote@gmail.com
William Copeland is an organizer and cultural worker from Detroit, Michigan. He is the climate Director of the East Michigan Environmental Action Council, coordinated the 2014 Our Power Gathering for youth activists from the US Climate Justice Alliance, and Local coordinator for the 2010 US Social Forum.

Pamela Miller, USA
Alaska Community Action on Toxics
pamela@akaction.org
Pam has 30+ years experience in environmental health, justice, and marine ecology issues. She is the Executive Director of Alaska Community Action on Toxics. Her work in the Arctic with Indigenous Peoples include toxics, mercury, biomonitoring and climate issues.

Jennifer Wang, USA
Healthcare Without Harm
jwang@hcwh.org
Jennifer is the Campaign Coordinator for the Coal, Climate, and Health Initiative of HCWH, bringing 6+ years of experience at the intersection of public health and the environment. She holds an MS in Global Health and Environment and a BS in Chemistry.
South America

Vladimir ‘Mirko’ Moskat, Argentina Taller Ecologista
moskat.mirko@gmail.com
Vladimir joined Taller Ecologista ten years ago and works in the waste management program for the organization. He is also involved in the Anti-Incineration movement, as part of the Citizens Anti-incineration Coalition of Argentina, and GAIA.

Alex Cardoso, Brazil
National Movement of Recyclers of Brazil alex@mncr.org.br
Alex is a third generation recycler. He began his career in 1999 and is the Co-Founder of the Global Alliance of Waste Pickers. He works to improve the life and working conditions of recyclers, and defends their rights through public policy advocacy.

Maria ‘Mari’ Pavez, Uruguay
RAPAL Uruguay
coord@rapaluruguay.org
Maria has been the coordinator of RAPAL-Uruguay since 2003, and works on monitoring the social, environmental, and economic impacts of pesticides and GMO crops.

South Asia

Malati Gadgil, India
SWaCH
malti.gadgil@gmail.com
Malati has an MA in Sociology, focusing on public health and gender. She worked as the CEO of SWaCH, and is currently coordinator for Asian wastepicker groups.
Michael Mazgaonkar, India
GGF
mozdam@gmail.com
Michael sits on the GGF India Advisory Board. He is also the co-founder of both Mozda Collective and Paryavaran Suraksha Samiti (PSS) which work on soil and water conservation, industrial pollution and other issues.

Shweta Narayan, India
The Other Media
nopcenever.new@gmail.com
Shweta is an environmental justice activist and a researcher. She coordinates the Community Environmental Monitoring program of The Other Media and has been associated with the campaign for justice for the survivors of the Bhopal Gas Tragedy since 2002.

Convener Participants

Björn Beeler
IPEN
bjornbeeler@ipen.org
Björn is the International Coordinator of IPEN - global NGO network working collectively to eliminate toxics that threaten health and the environment. He has 13 years of experience in UN environmental policy negotiations and international development aid around the world.

Judy Hatcher
Pesticide Action Network Asia & The Pacific
judy@panna.org
Judy joined PAN in June 2012. Since 1981, she has worked as a grant maker, program manager, consultant and trainer for social justice groups throughout the country. Previous employers include the Funding Exchange, Amnesty International USA, & the Environmental Support Center.

Christie Keith
GAIA
christie@no-burn.org
Christie is GAIA’s International Coordinator, and supports community leadership on waste and climate solutions. She has 24+ years of experience in social justice activism and non-profit management, including seven years in popular education, program coordination, and rights-based organizing in Guatemala.
Josh Karliner
Healthcare Without Harm
josh@hcwh.org
Josh has 25+ years of experience in international environmental and human rights. He oversees HCWH’s Global Green and Healthy Hospitals Network, initiatives on climate change and health, and Mercury Free 2020—joint initiative with WHO to eliminate mercury in health care.

Marni Rosen
Jennifer Altman Foundation
mrosen@jaf.org
Marni is Executive Director of JAF. She co-founded the Gulf Coast Fund, dedicated to sustainable and just recovery. In partnership with Global Greengrants Fund and four NGO networks, she initiated the Global South + Program to support environmental health and justice.

Shorey Myers
Jennifer Altman Foundation
smyers@jaf.org
Shorey is the Program Manager at JAF. Her work has a strong focus on global environmental health and justice issues as well as philanthropic support of critical social services. Shorey holds a BA in Psychology and a Masters in Public Health, focused on Environmental Health Sciences.

Abby Reyes
University of California, Irvine
abigail.reyes@uci.edu
Abby is the director of the UCI Sustainability Initiative. She is a human rights and environmental lawyer with experience convening interdisciplinary research teams of scientists, engineers, and lawyers to address community-identified sustainability challenges.

Moijgan Sami
University of California, Irvine
msami@uci.edu
Mo has been working in equity-based social and environmental sustainability for 20+ years. She has a doctorate in Urban Planning, Policy & Design from UCI with a specialization in planning healthy and sustainable communities.

Brought to you by IPEN

UCI Towards a Sustainable 21st Century